

News from the Office of the District Attorney

August 5, 2009,
For Immediate Release

Shelly LaGrill
Public Information Contact
520-6169

District Attorney's Office, Volunteer Program Manager Gwen Stein named President of DOVIA (Directors of Volunteers in Agencies)

District Attorney's Office Volunteer Program Manager, Gwen Stein was named President of DOVIA of the Pikes Peak Region on July 9th, 2009. "It is an honor to serve in this new role and it allows me to represent the 4th Judicial District Attorney's Office and showcase the work being accomplished in our community by dedicated teams of volunteers" said Stein.

Stein has proven to be a very effective volunteer recruiter with over 100 volunteers at the District Attorney's Office. In April of this year, forty seven volunteers at the 4th Judicial Office of the District Attorney received Presidential Service Awards. The Presidential Service Award is a prestigious service award given to volunteers who have given, 100-4,000 hours of volunteer service in the young adult to adult category. There are three Lifetime, seven Gold, eighteen Silver and nineteen Bronze Award recipients also serving at the District Attorney's Office.

Stein has worked for the District Attorney for just two years and in that time has tripled the number of volunteers working for the office.

###